

PRESS RELEASE

Baltimore Green Map:
Map Global, Celebrate Local!

On Friday, June 5 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.
At Howard P Rawlings Conservatory in Druid Hill Park

Baltimore Green Map is part of the international festivities celebrating the launch of Open Green Map worldwide. There are events planned in many Green Mapped cities - NYC, Stockholm, Santiago, Geneva, Jakarta, Capetown, Clackmannanshire - all to be linked by slideshow and Twitter into one global community fest.

The Friends of Druid Hill Park and TreeBaltimore are our co-hosts for this event which will include map displays and demonstrations, music, light refreshments, trees to take home and plant, and, of course, opportunities to add sites to Baltimore's Green Map. Be part of the global community

Baltimore is in the forefront of this international Green Map movement, having produced the much-lauded Jones Falls Trail print map including a detailed map of Druid Hill Park (viewable at www.baltogreenmap.org/maps.shtml) and the online, interactive Baltimore Regional Green Map, already showing over 300 local resource sites to the world. <http://www.opengreenmap.org/baltimoreregion>

More than 350 places around the world have used the award-winning Green Map® Icons to map their nature, culture and sustainable living resources. Open Green Map, a Google-based application, will make sustainability mapping accessible to many more.

Celebrate! Collaborate!
